Additional information (if applicable)

If you have any additional information to your application, you can write it below.

Declarations and information

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information I have given in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161).
- My residence permit can be revoked (Section 10 (1) of the Special Act on temporary residence permit for displaced persons from Ukraine (hereinafter the Special Act)).

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to letting the Immigration Service obtain information about my pure private affairs from other Danish authorities, including the police authorities, for the purpose of enabling them to process my application (Public Administration Act section 29).

Such information includes:

- Criminal conditions
- Health conditions
- Intern family conditions
- Social conditions

C. Sworn declaration that I am not covered by a sanction list

I solemnly swear that I am not covered by a restrictive measure in the form of a restriction with regards to entry and traveling through Denmark (sanction list), decided by the United Nations or the European Union. The sanction lists more specific content can be found at the European External Action Services (EEAS) webpage, eeas.europa.eu.

If I am found to be covered by a sanction list, decided by the United Nations or the European Union, I can be subject to the following consequences:

- My residence permit can be revoked (the Special Act section 10 (1)).
- I can be expelled from Denmark (the Aliens Act section 25 a).

D. Sworn declaration about activities that could lead to exclusion

I solemnly swear that before my entry into Denmark I have not carried out activities that could lead to exclusion under section 6 of the Special Act, which among other things covers aliens who have been deported from Denmark as a result of serious crime, or aliens who outside the country has committed a criminal offense which would have led to deportation in Denmark. The provision also covers conditions of aliens who are considered a danger to the security of the state and aliens who are considered to be covered by Article 1 F of the Refugee Convention.

E. Information about data protection

You can get information about how the Immigration Service and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark process your data and about your rights in the fact sheet at the back of the form.

F. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authority

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (the Special Act section 17 and 18). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

G. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities give certain information to authorities in the municipality (kommune) where you will live, should you be given a residence permit (the Special Act section 27).

The municipality will also be informed if

- your residence permit is not renewed at a later point or has been revoked, or
- your residence permit is found to be lapsed.

The municipality will have access to data contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers required for processing your case, including:

- Information about existing and other earlier grounds for residence.
- Information about the status of your application, including the date it was submitted, type of application and whether a decision has been appealed, etc.
- Information about municipalities where you have previously resided.

H. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if you are granted a permit. If you are granted a permit and the Immigration Service finds that you no longer meet the requirements of your residence permit, your permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information, or of not meeting the requirements of your residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System.
- Comparison of information contained in the Danish immigration authorities' registers with records held by the Civil Registration System (CPR), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry (eIndkomst).
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities.
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study.
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace.

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

I. Information about the consequences for permanent residence, if you have worked against the establishment of your identity
You are obligated to provide correct information about your identity. If you have worked deliberately against the establishment of your identity in connection with your application for residence permit/extension of residence permit, it could mean, that you cannot be granted a permanent residence permit in the future. This applies if you e.g. present falsified identity documents, or if you give untrue information about your name, date of birth (age), country of birth or citizenship.

I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the terms laid out in section A-D and have read and understood the information in section E-I. *
